

Having their Cake! Lancaster House TRA Coffee morning raises hundreds of pounds for Macmillan.

On 13 September the committee of Lancaster House Tenants and Residents Association held a Macmillan Cancer Care Coffee morning event for residents of the block and their friends and family.

There were homemade cakes galore to cater for anyone with a sweet tooth and tea and coffee were also flowing.

By the end of the two-hour session along with a raffle on the day the group raised £240 pounds. Topped up with donations from people unable to attend the TRA raised a grand total of £502.50 for a very deserving cause.
